EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Each year Council reviews the level of fees and charges that are applied across Gannawarra Shire Council for the provision of services, with a view to achieving a balance between affordability, encouraging greater usage, cost recovery and raising sufficient revenue to support the delivery of services.

The Schedule of Fees and Charges is to be included in Council's Annual Budget document.

Since the adoption of the 2024/2025 Fees and Charges in June 2024 and the implementation of Pre-Prep as part of the State Government's Best Start Best Life reforms, Council Officers have identified an opportunity to implement a new fee that would enable children in the Leitchville area an additional day of three-year-old kindergarten.

10 QUESTION TIME

Name	Lynee
Address	Koondrook
Question 1
If I purchase a large block of land and want to subdivide for housing blocks, do I have to asphalt the roads?
ANSWER:
If subdividing land into residential blocks, the requirement to asphalt roads can depend on conditions outlined in the planning permit, local planning policies, and guidelines set out in the Infrastructure Design Manual. To determine specific obligations relevant to your subdivision, it's recommended you consult with a planning consultant who can provide guidance tailored to your individual circumstances.

Address	Kerang
Question 1
What specific strategies does the Council have in place to address the anticipated increase in population and demand for housing due to the industrial developments, including the rare earth mineral mine, egg farm and the VNI transmission line projects. Is the Council considering any changes to zoning regulations, particularly regarding the rezoning of farmland within the levy banks system, to facilitate the development of new residential areas?
ANSWER: Councils are required to undertake a Planning Scheme amendment to change a zone from its current land use and development. The Planning Minister is responsible for approving such amendments the Gannawarra Shire Council must operate within this framework. Representatives from council have been advocating to the Minister to make this process simpler and with shorter timeframes. To assist with re-zoning council has developed an Urban Growth Strategy to identify areas of residential growth across the shire. The next step in the process is to develop structure plans for each of the identified areas in the shire, this will allow future zoning changes to occur and ensure there is adequate land for housing and employment.

What is the Council's long-term vision for residential growth in Kerang, and how does it align with the anticipated industrial growth in the area. How will the Council monitor the impact of industrial developments on the housing market, and what measures will be taken if the situation worsens?
ANSWER: A lack of residential availability is an issue not only across the Gannawarra Shire but across the entire country, housing development is failing to meet population growth across the country. This is why the state and federal government have set housing targets for each municipality in Australia, the target set for Gannawarra is 850 new homes by 2051. These targets will be supported by federal and state government funding to support the development of projects. At a local level the Gannawarra Shire has developed the Urban Growth Strategy, is developing town structure plans and is working closely with developers to identify potential projects.
